Bobcats!

We are so very excited that the first day of remote learning will begin on Monday, August 10th. On Monday morning, please use the directions attached to this email to access your online classes using Schoology.

We can't wait to have you in our classrooms on our campus again. In the meantime, please know that your Bobcat Nation teachers have worked hard to create content that is engaging and keeps you on your path to graduation.

If you have questions, feel free to email your teachers.

We hope you have a beautiful bobcat day.

Sincerely,
